

Mölnlycke® Z-Flo™ Training and Education Offerings

IN-PERSON

Training and Education

Mölnlycke Team (Clinical Specialists, Sales Representatives and Implementation Associates)

- Customized hands-on education at roll out for bedside staff (all shifts) according to unit/facility needs and/or planned follow up training as agreed upon
- Classroom/Group training sessions on proper product usage and foundational education
- Train the trainer program adapted for product champions at each facility or as needed: Work closely with dedicated product champions within each facility to develop high level skills and knowledge with Z-Flo product utilization

PRINTED

Training and Education Material Support

- Customizable application guides with proper instructions for use and inclusion criteria specific to your needs
- Product selection guides specific to your formulary
- Customizable sizing guides

Mölnlycke® Z-Flo® Neonatal Fluidized Positioner Product Application Guide

Full Body

Indications:

For use with the Z-Flo Fluidized Positioner to provide for patient positioning in patients who are unable to lie on their side or back. These patients are at risk for pressure ulcers, contractures of the neck, and other complications. The Z-Flo Fluidized Positioner is designed to provide a gentle, supportive environment for the patient.

Contraindications:

Do not use with patients who are unable to lie on their side or back. Do not use with patients who are unable to lie on their side or back. Do not use with patients who are unable to lie on their side or back.

Z-Flo® Fluidized Positioner
NICU Sizing Chart
Product / Patient Weight	1000 - 2000 gms
Small (1000 gms or less)	• Head opening: 10.5" (26.7 cm)
Medium (1000 - 2000 gms)	• Head opening: 12.5" (31.8 cm)
Large (2000 gms or more)	• Head opening: 14.5" (36.8 cm)

Instructions:

1. Place the patient in the Z-Flo Fluidized Positioner.
2. Adjust the Z-Flo Fluidized Positioner to fit the patient.
3. Monitor the patient's position and comfort.
4. Change the patient's position as needed.

Warnings:

Do not use with patients who are unable to lie on their side or back. Do not use with patients who are unable to lie on their side or back. Do not use with patients who are unable to lie on their side or back.

Notes:

The Z-Flo Fluidized Positioner is designed to provide a gentle, supportive environment for the patient. It is not intended to be used as a substitute for medical care.

© 2021 Mölnlycke. All rights reserved.

ONLINE

Training and Education

- On demand product application videos Available 24/7
 - Neonatal full body and head positioning
 - Positioning for head/neck, side lying, heel floating
- Webinar for foundational education, proper product usage in the NICU and pediatric population

